“Sbragia displays a Midas touch with Chardonnay, and the 2013 Chardonnay Home Ranch is a big-time winner. Aged in 50% new oak and 50% older oak, it exhibits buttery creme brulee and tangerine oil notes intermixed with honeysuckle and pineapple. Medium to full-bodied and luscious, with admirable fruit intensity as well as a long, textured, luscious finish, it can be drunk over the next 2-3 years. This is also a stunning value for a Chardonnay of this quality.”

“Beautifully crafted, rich and expansive, with a slow-building mix of green apple, tangerine, white peach and honeydew. Ends with a long, intense and persistent finish, echoing fig and honey. Drink now.”

2012 Home Ranch Chardonnay Wine Details

Rated 92

Robert Parker, Jr., WINE ADVOCATE
December 2013

"Even better, the 2012 Chardonnay Home Ranch's alcohol came in a full degree higher than the 2011's, and the wine hits the palate with a much larger tactile impression. Abundant aromas of white peach, apricot marmalade and pineapple soar from this full-bodied, pure, rich, well-made wine. It sells for a song given its quality. Enjoy it over the next 2-3 years.”

"Intense tropical fruit, pineapple, citrus and melon are at the core of this moderately rich, full-bodied effort, ending with a hint of butterscotch. Maintains depth and focus. Drink now through 2019. 4,508 cases made."
