FAMILY VINEYARDS

(93-95+)

“Gorgeous blueberry, black raspberry and blackcurrant fruit soar from the glass, with the oak pushed way to the background despite the use of 100% new French oak. The wine is opulent, sumptuously textured, and accessible. This is a beauty and a superb wine when considering that this is from a great vineyard and one of California’s top winemakers”

WINEMAKER NOTES

My good friend, Mike Martini, whose family bought Monte Rosso in the late 1930s, shares a couple of blocks with me every year. At 1,200 feet elevation, this is a classic mountain vineyard, resting firmly on the southwest side of the Mayacamas mountain range. Sitting above the fog line, the vineyard’s iron-rich soils are red, rocky and well drained. The old, head-pruned vines struggle for nutrients and the rich, concentrated fruit shows it.
