

Chicago Tribune

Looking for Star Power

“An informal blind tasting of seven reds by the Good Eating tasting panel showed some of these wines are as distinctive as the name on the label”

Listed #1

2002 Arnold Palmer Cabernet Sauvignon

“Round, toothsome, peppery with a hint of mint, this cab, made by Napa’s Luna Vineyards, was lively yet balanced, with just a touch of tannic tartness. Lovely floral nose.” $14

Rated 3 Corkscrews (Very Good)

Bill Daley

Chicago Tribune

December 20, 2006

