

KENDALL MIX WINEMAKER

GOOSE RIDGE VINEYARD & ESTATE WINERY

Veteran Columbia Valley winemaker Kendall Mix joined Goose Ridge Vineyard & Estate Winery as head winemaker in April of 2010. Born and raised in Edmonton, Alberta, Kendall joined the Goose Ridge team with 20 years of winemaking experience.

After working in California for 4 vintages (2 with Robert Mondavi as internships, and 2 with RH Phillips) Kendall moved to Washington in 1993 to join the Chateau Ste Michelle red winemaking team at their Canoe Ridge Estate facility. There Kendall was involved with making the CSM Reserve, Single Vineyard and Columbia Valley red wines under the direction of Mike Januik, Charlie Hoppes and Ron Bunnell.

In 2003 he became the winemaker for Canoe Ridge Vineyard, and in 2004 joined Washington Vintners where he was the winemaker for the Corliss Estates wines, Tranche Cellars and RMV Cellars.

In his position with Goose Ridge Vineyard & Estate Winery, Kendall oversees winemaking for all three wines that comprise the Monson Family Estates' portfolio: Goose Ridge, StoneCap and Sol Duc. Kendall holds a degree in microbiology from the University of Alberta and attended UC Davis, studying viticulture and enology.
