Reviews

- Jeb Dunnuck: 95 points – “ ... Stone fruits, toasted bread, spice, and honeyed floral notes all dominate the bouquet, and it's medium to full-bodied, balanced, and long. This is straight-up gorgeous, classic Chardonnay to enjoy over the coming 6-7 years.”
- Lisa Perrotti-Brown (Robert Parker): 93 points - “The 2018 Chardonnay Napa Valley prances out of the glass with bold, showy pink grapefruit, fresh pineapple and ripe pears notes plus nuances of almond croissant, allspice and lime blossoms. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is gracefully constructed with layers of citrus and savory flavors, a silken texture and seamless freshness, finishing on a lingering zesty note.”
- Antonio Galloni, Vinous: 92 points – “Apricot, hazelnut, chamomile, pineapple and dried flowers give this oily yet mid-weight Chardonnay tons of flavor complexity and nuance. All the elements come together so effortlessly in this expressive Chardonnay.”
